About the editor

Watson (Alex)

Goodall (Dominic)

Member of the EFO since 2000.

Dominic Goodall studied Greek and Latin, then Sanskrit at Pembroke College, Oxford. After finishing his BA (Sanskrit with Pali, 1990), he came to Hamburg for two years to learn medieval Tamil with Professor S.A. Srinivasan. He then returned to Oxford, to Wolfson College, where, under the guidance of Professor Alexis Sanderson, he produced a critical edition of the opening chapters of Bhaṭṭa Rāmakaṇṭha's tenth-century commentary on the Kiraṇatantra, which he submitted as a doctoral thesis in 1995 and subsequently published from Pondicherry in 1998. He was attached to the French Institute of Pondicherry as a junior researcher in 1996-1997 before returning to Oxford as Wolfson College Junior Research Fellow of Indology from 1998 to 2000. In 2000, he became a member of the École française d'Extrême-Orient (EFO, "French School of Asian Studies"). He became Head of the Pondicherry Centre of the EFO in 2002, where he remained until April 2011.

Posted in Paris from 2011 to 2015, he gave lectures at the École pratique des hautes études (Religious Sciences Section), principally on Cambodian inscriptions in Sanskrit and on the history of Śaivism from unpublished sources. He is now once again posted in Pondicherry, where he continues to pursue his scholarly interests, in particular in Sanskrit poetry and in the history of the Śaiva Siddhānta.

Among his publications are editions and translations of works of poetry in Sanskrit and of hitherto unpublished Śaiva scriptures and theological commentaries.

He is currently a professor (directeur d'études) at the EFEO, co-editor with Dr. Marion Rastelli of the Viennese dictionary of tantric terminology, the Tāntrikābhidhānakośa, and a contributor to the Hamburg Encyclopaedia of Manuscript Cultures in Asia and Africa \(EMCAA\).

In May 2016, he was elected membre correspondant étranger de l'Académie des Inscriptions et Belles-Lettres.

S.L.P. Anjaneya Sarma

Annasamudram (Andhra Pradesh), 1952

S. L. P. Anjaneya Sarma was born in a traditional family in Andhra Pradesh. His primary education in Sanskrit was given by his father Brahmaśrī Śriṣṭi Śrī Rāmaśarmā and later on by his paternal uncle, Brahmaśrī Śriṣṭi Sāmbamūrtiśāstrī, who taught him advanced Sanskrit with special reference to grammar (vyākaraṇaśāstra) and poetics (alaṃkāraśāstra). He continued his studies at Andhra University where he obtained his Master's degree in 1970 and completed his Ph.D. in 1987. Later in his life he remained true to the traditional education: he studied advaitavedānta under the guidance of Brahmaśrī R. Kṛṣṇamūrtiśāstrī and Brahmaśrī Maṇḍirāviḍaśāstrī, and is currently undergoing formal training in mīmāṃsā (bhāṭṭamīmāṃsā) under Brahmaśrī K. Rāmasubrahmaṇyaśāstrī. He has acquired formal titles of "Vyākaraṇavidvat" from Śrī Veṅkateśvaraveda-śāstra-āgamavidvat-sadas, Tirupati, in 1982 and "Vedāntaśāstra-viśārada" from Śrī Jagadguru Śaṅkarācārya of Sringeri in 2001.

He joined Matrusri Oriental College, Jillellamudi, Guntur (Dist.) A.P., as a Lecturer in Sanskrit in the year 1971 where he taught grammar (vyākaraṇa), literature and poetics for 16 years. Many of S.L.P. Anjaneya Sarma's students have benefitted from the depth of his knowledge, so that, for example, one of them was honored with the title "Vyākaraṇavidvatpravara" by Śrī Jagadguru Bharatīrtha Śaṅkarācārya of Sringeri in 2005.

He joined the Pondicherry Centre of the École française d'Extrême-Orient (EFEO), as a Chargé de recherche (research fellow) in 1987 and has since then been actively involved in the research activities carried out at the centre as an independent scholar as well as in collaboration with other researchers. During the first two years of his service, S.L.P. Anjaneya Sarma contributed to the preparation of Pāṇiniyavyākaraṇodāharanakośa. In the following years he was employed in collaborative research within the framework of the program "Indian Analysis of the Sanskrit Language and Literature", led by Professor F. Grimal, the then Head of the Pondicherry Centre of the EFEO. This research resulted in the publication of critical editions and studies of two major commentaries on classical Sanskrit plays of Bhavabhūti: Vīrarāghava's commentary on Mahāvīracarita (published in 1999) and Harihara's commentary on Mālatīmādhava (published in 2005). In collaboration with Professor Grimal he has been working on the preparation of a critical edition and translation of Kāvyaadarpaṇa, a literary work by Rājacūḍāmaṇidīkṣita, as well as on several publications within the newly founded series "Vyākhyānamālā", the first volume of which (Sarma and Grimal [2013]) has been recently published. His current research includes a critical edition of Tripathagā, a commentary on Nageśa's Paribhāṣenduśekhara. As an independent researcher S.L.P. Anjaneya Sarma has focused his attention on the study of different aspects of traditional Indian grammar and published two major monographs and a great number of articles in this field (see the publication list below).

Throughout his long career at the EFEO, Pondicherry, Dr. S.L.P. Anjaneya Sarma has continuously been a source of knowledge and inspiration for a wide range of scholars (from students up to the most advanced researchers) coming to Pondicherry from different parts of the world to seek his assistance. Dr. Sarma has also been invited to teach courses at the Indological departments of two European Universities: École Pratique des Hautes Études in June 2011 (lecture-series "Readings in the Bhāmatī and in other commentaries of the tradition of philosophical Vedānta") and University of Hamburg in 2014 ("Intensive Course on Indian Grammar and Poetics").

Throughout his scholarly career Dr. S.L.P. Anjaneya Sarma has remained deeply rooted in the traditional scholarship. He has attended numerous traditional scholarly debates (vākyārthasadas) in different parts of India, such as Madras, Tirupati, and many more. Since 2010 he has been acting as the examiner in vyākaraṇaśāstram at Sri Kanchee Veda Vedantha Sastra Sabha in Tenali, Guntur Dist. (A.P.), an annually conducted traditional examination in different śāstras. He is, furthermore, an external examiner for the PhD graduates in vyākaraṇaśāstra at the Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha, Tirupati, and Rashtriya Sanskrit Samsthan, Delhi.

Dr. S.L.P. Anjaneya Sarma is a member of NETamil headed by Dr. Eva Wilden and contributes to comparative studies of Telugu, Sanskrit and Tamil grammars within the Tolkāppiyam team.
